

Growth Management Services – Fact Sheet List

You can reach the state's growth management program at:

Telephone: (360) 725-3000

Web: <http://www.cted.wa.gov/growth>

Update: July 2003

Affordable Housing

Communities wrestle with how to provide affordable housing for all income levels

Buildable Lands

Do we have enough residential, commercial, and industrial land for future growth?

Concurrency & GMA

Connecting development with transportation planning

ESA Listings & Planning

GMA comprehensive plans, development regulations crucial to state's salmon recovery efforts

ESA Listings and Critical Areas

How critical areas regulations can help ensure protection of salmon habitat

GMA & Capital Facilities

Capital facilities planning is essential for economic vitality and quality of life

GMA & Capital Facilities Template

Capital facilities planning template project

GMA & Economic Development

Growth Management is good for economic development

GMA & Quality of Life

Counties, cities completing GMA requirements to manage Washington's forecasted growth

GMA & Transportation

GMA links transportation and land use

Growth Management

Overview of the Growth Management Act

Growth Management Services

Helping Washington communities manage growth and protect important resources

Indian Reservations, Trust Lands, Treaty Rights, and Cooperative Land Use Planning

Understanding differences and building cooperation with tribal governments essential for regional planning efforts

Growth Management Services – Fact Sheet List

You can reach the state's growth management program at:

Telephone: (360) 725-3000

Web: <http://www.cted.wa.gov/growth>

Update: July 2003

Planning Education

Short course demystifies planning process for elected officials, planning commissioners, citizens

Planning for Rural Lands

Rural quality of life in rural areas

SEPA/GMA

Combining environmental review, planning pays dividends

Urban Growth Areas

How much space do Washington's communities need for urban growth?

Watershed Planning

The link between growth management, watershed planning